

GLOBAL LONELINESS AWARENESS SUMMIT

Sponsorship Levels

In honor of Global Loneliness Awareness Week, the Coalition to End Social Isolation and Loneliness and Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine invite you to participate in our third annual summit in Washington, D.C. on June 11th. During this event, we will collectively delve into the role of social connection as a potent catalyst for public health, civic engagement, and the development of resilient communities that promote the well-being of all individuals.

In the spirit of inclusivity and accessibility, we warmly extend this opportunity for you to sponsor this year's event. Your generous support will contribute to keeping the event free to everyone, helping us foster participation and connection for all.

CONNECTION CATALYST: - $30,000

- Share your voice with a featured 30-second pre-recorded message for the event opening and our social media channels.
- Showcase your leadership with exclusive access to Coalition media contacts and press coverage opportunities.
- Bask in verbal recognition at the event as a cherished key partner.
- Shine brightly with your name or logo included on our event webpage, program materials, social media, and press release.
- Embrace the community fully with a CESIL General Membership - our way of saying thank you for being a Catalyst.

RECEPTION LUMINARY - $10,000

- Light up our community by hosting a reception that creates meaningful connections.
- Bask in verbal recognition at the reception as a cherished key partner.
